

The Space Park Enology Club Presents...

A Taste of New Zealand Artisan Wines with Jim Knight of The Wine House, Winemaker at Jelly Roll Winery Friday, July 20th, 7:30pm At the El Segundo Embassy Suites

The Enology Club is pleased to present a great evening of wine tasting, with our guest speaker Jim Knight, family owner of The Wine House in Los Angeles. We are also bringing in Clive Dougall, winemaker at Seresin Estate Winery in Marlborough New Zealand. Seresin wines are organically and biodynamically grown, hand-tended, hand-picked & blended into Artisan Wines. They have a second label, MOMO, which we will also taste. We'll pour Sauvignon Blancs & Pinot Noirs from NZ with a surprise or two mixed in and a final flight of Syrah, including some Jelly Roll label from Jim.

Jim has been in the wine business for twelve years. He inherited the "Wine Bug" from his father but he really discovered his passion by doing cellar and vineyard work in Santa Barbara. In addition to role at the Wine House, Jim has become an accomplished winemaker and produces outstanding wines under the Jelly Roll label. His area of expertise is the Central Coast (Pinot Noir, Syrah and Chardonnay).

With over 30 years of service in Los Angeles, The Wine House lives up to their motto "The Only Wine Shop You Need." Their tireless commitment to customer service, knowledgeable sales staff and boundless selection of fine wines has helped them become the biggest and best wine shop in Southern California!
