

The Space Park Enology Club Presents

Proulx, pronounced "PRU", Wines with Winemaker Kevin Riley

Friday, March 22nd, 2013 at 7:30PM

Hosted by Marc Levy

The Space Park Enology Club is proud to feature wines from Proulx, pronounced "PRU" winery of Paso Robles with Winemaker Kevin Riley. The Paso Robles wine region is located halfway between Los Angeles and San Francisco in the area known as the California Central Coastal AVA region. Paso Robles is located approximately 20 miles from the Pacific Ocean. The Santa Lucia Mountain Range causes the climate to provide nearly perfect growing conditions. Paso Robles is known for its hot days and cool nights. The most prevalent varieties of grapes produced here are: Zinfandel, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Syrah and Merlot.

Our guest speaker winemaker Kevin Riley has always had his feet wet in the wine industry. Growing up in Westport, Connecticut, he worked alongside his father and grandfather at Greens Farm Spirit Shop, where his passion for wines and winemaking all began. After graduating high school Kevin was California bound and as luck would have it he found himself in San Luis Obispo County, where the wine industry was just putting itself on the map. Naturally, he started taking steps to educate himself on winemaking at Cal Poly and quickly immersed himself in the industry. Today Kevin's experience consulting for many local wineries has cemented long-existing relationships with growers allowing him to hand-pick the fruit he knows will be right to create the trademark smoothness of each Proulx wine.
