

Space Park Enology Club Presents:

Take a Tour of Italy with John Busby
Palmina Winery

*Friday, July 17, 2015, 7:30 pm
Crowne Plaza Redondo Beach and Marina*

Italy is home to some of the oldest wine-producing regions in the world, and Italian wines are known worldwide for their broad variety. Italy is also the world's second largest wine producer by volume after France, but you don't have to take a trip to Sicily to try Italian varietals. You just have to make it to our July event.

John Busby, General Manager at Palmina Winery, will be taking us on a tour of Italy through his wines. Palmina produces a full range of wines crafted from Italian varietals grown in Santa Barbara County. They keep their production quantities low, which allows them to produce crafty, high quality Italian varietals.

The winemaker, Steve Clifton, produced the first Palmina wines in the basement of his home in 1995, and in 2015 the winery will be celebrating its 20th anniversary. John wants to continue positioning Palmina as a sustainable Santa Barbara County brand for the next 20 years and beyond.

We'll taste Palmina's Nebbiolo, Barbera and Sangiovese, made in the true Italian style. We'll also compare it to true Italian wines and other Cal-Itals (California Italian wines). This amazing event will take place on July 17 at 7:30 pm at the Crowne Plaza Redondo Beach and Marina, 300 N. Harbor Drive, Redondo Beach, 90277, at the corner of Harbor Dr. & Beryl St. Space is limited. Make your reservation quickly & ensure your place at this event!
