

Space Park Enology Club Presents:

Fighting Fire with Wine featuring Greg Allen of Cuatro Dias Winery

Friday, September 18th, 2015, 7:30 pm
Crowne Plaza Redondo Beach and Marina

The Space Park Enology Club is proud to feature Greg Allen, owner and winemaker for Cuatro Dias Winery. He has developed his own winemaking style from his educational experiences as well as his hands on winemaking experiences with San Antonio Winery and Zoller Winestyling Winery. Cuatro Dias uses grapes sourced from vineyards throughout California's Central Coast including such vineyards as Stolpman, Fess Parker, Sculpterra, Roadrunner Farms Vineyard and McGinley Vineyards.

When not making wine, Greg serves the City of Redondo Beach as a Firefighter/Paramedic. His work schedule is typically three 24 hour shifts followed by four days off. During those days off he focuses on his passion for wine and winemaking. Greg's days off are so near and dear to his heart that he named his winery Cuatro Dias, which of course means Four Days.

Greg is a big believer in giving back to the community. Not only has he dedicated his life to being a first responder; he and his wines have become a fixture at many local charity events. Even with his hectic schedule Greg makes time to give back by donating his wines for charity events such as For Our Children to support Sandpipers, the annual Cancer Support Community event at the South Coast Botanic Garden, Taste of Summer to support The Hope Project, and LA WineFest to support Sunshine Kids.

Come taste some outstanding Central Coast wines by Cuatro Dias and other notable Central Coast wineries. Friday, September 18th, 7:30PM at the Crowne Plaza Redondo Beach and Marina, 300 N.
