

The Space Park Enology Club Presents:

Experience the Zen of Zin (and More) with Winemaker Carol Shelton

Friday, June 3, 2016 @ 7:30 pm

The Space Park Enology Club is pleased to present an entertaining and educational evening of wine tasting with our guest speaker, Carol Shelton, winemaker for Carol Shelton Wines. Carol is widely cited as the most awarded winemaker in the United States. She has earned many titles – Winemaker of the Year numerous times, Pioneer Woman Winemaker – but the one that is most fitting is “Queen of Zin.”

Under the tutelage of Dr. Ann Noble, UC Davis Professor, Flavor Scientist and Aroma Wheel author, Carol threw herself into her enology studies at UC Davis. One of Carol’s projects, on yeast strains, proved that different strains produce different flavor characteristics in wine. This early yeast strain knowledge is reflected in the various wines Carol produces today.

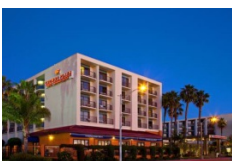

In 2000, when Carol and her husband and business partner, Mitch Mackenzie, launched Carol Shelton Wines, they knew their focus would be Zinfandel. That focus has paid off. Carol’s Zins, along with the other varietals she produces, continue to receive high acclaim as she maintains her role as the “Queen of Zin.”

Zinfandel’s unpretentiousness and range of flavors drew Carol further into the exploration of this varietal, achieved by making various Zins from different growing regions and allowing the terroir to speak through the wines.

Carol produces approximately 20,000 cases a year, with distribution in the U.S. and around the world. With an eye to the future, she has now added a few non-Zin varietals and is slowly increasing production to meet the demands for her wines. You may want to visit her website to order her wines: www.carolshelton.com.

Join us for a sampling of Carol Shelton’s palate pleasing wines. We will savor a flight of three different white varietals, a flight of Carol’s mouthwatering Zinfandels, and a flight of three bold red non-Zin varietals.

An assortment of cheese, fruit and bread will be served. Sign up today to ensure a seat at our tasting.
