

Space Park Enology Club Presents

Long-Aged, Old-World Style Santa Barbara County Wines:

CORE Winery & Lompoc Wine Factory

with Winemakers Dave & Becky Corey

Friday, April 12 at 7:30pm

Expand your palate with undiscovered old-world style and long-aged blends of Santa Barbara County. Most of these wines have been aged 12 years. The Space Park Enology Club is honored to have winemakers, Dave and Becky Corey of CORE Winery, guide this tasting that will feature several of their wines, along with reinvented wine blends produced by the Lompoc Wine Factory, the co-op facility where CORE wines are produced.

In 2001, Dave and Becky Corey started CORE Winery with six barrels of wine. Their combined experience and know-how of viticulture, people and marketing, and love of wine have resulted in praise by customers and critics since their first vintage release.

Lompoc Wine Factory ("LWF") offers a home to local winemakers perfecting their skill and art, in addition to creating their own artisanal wines.

Wine creations featured at this event will begin with those produced by Lompoc Wine Factory – a Rosé apéritif and a mixed flight of two white wines – a Semillon, barrel-aged for 1.5 years and a Chardonnay, barrel-aged for 5 years, and a red wine blend of Zinfandel, Carignane and Mourvèdre. The next two flights of red wines will feature CORE Winery's Grenache-Mourvèdre blends, a Grenache-Tempranillo-Syrah blend, a Tempranillo, and a Tempranillo-Merlot-Cabernet blend.

LWF and CORE are offering discount pricing + FREE SHIPPING on orders placed by 4/11/2019. Pick up at event. Contact them directly. Orders placed on 4/12/2019 receive a 25% discount + a FREE tasting coupon at their respective tasting rooms.
