2019 Rosé - 100% Cinsaut ($28 retail)

91pts Wine Enthusiast

Mouthwatering and highly smashable. Aromatically: rose water, melon rind, tart strawberries, sea salt and floral perfume. On the palate, the strawberry and lime fruit is supported by a confectionary yeastiness (think shortcake) and midweight texture, and underlined by the wine's bracing natural acidity.

2017 Working Holiday - 39% Grenache, 38% Syrah, 23% Mourvèdre ($28 retail)

92 pts Vinous

This wine came from our desire to create a true "table wine"; a wine that was rustic, delicious and affordable, while still being made as authentically as possible, with little manipulation. Above all, it had to be infinitely quaffable. Aromatically, the wine shows plenty of fruit: blueberry, raspberry and strawberry. This is accentuated by sweet anise spice, and counterbalanced by savory elements of rhubarb, peppercorns and stemmy characteristics.

2017 Zinfandel - 100% Zinfandel ($26 retail)

90 pts California Grapevine

In our continued efforts to produce a line of wines for everyday use at the table, this wine was blended to provide a Zinfandel that was slightly less aggressive and a bit more food friendly than our main Zin bottling. The nose is juicy and almost confectionary with cherry taffy aromas, but there is also classic Zin pepper and rhubarb savoriness. While heavily and darkly fruited, the palate is nicely framed and structured with just a touch of oak spice and tannin.

2017 Oddly Natural - 45% Grenache, 41% Syrah, 14% Counoise ($52 retail)

Best of Class, Rhone Blends - 2020 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition

A deceptively savory and meaty nose (beef stock) explodes into insanely concentrated, candied red fruit that washes over the entire palate. A heavy wine, the tannins are well-rounded, supple and dense, and the whole wine seems to linger on the tongue for ages.
