(In Order of Tasting Flight)

2018 Albariño - ($18 retail)

Double-Gold and Best of Class – Central Coast Wine Competition

Crisp and fragrant with aromas of melon, pear, peach, and tropical fruit.

Food Pairing Recommendation: Pairs well with fish, raw oysters, calamari, and spicy foods.

2015 Tempranillo ($27 retail)

90 Points – Vinuous

Typified by strong fruit characters of strawberry and cherry. The aroma also has hints of flowers and dried leaves. The taste is supple and round with a soft tannic finish.

Food Pairing Recommendation: Pair with black olives, pizza, burritos, roast lamb, jambalaya, or blue cheese.

2012 Jubilado - 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Malbec, 15% Syrah ($28 retail)

Gold – Denver International Wine Competition

Jammy blueberry and black pepper are enriched by a sweet oak overlay; the taste is soft and accessible with fine tannins on a lingering finish.

Food Pairing Recommendation: Pair with gumbo, barbequed beef ribs, crawfish etouffee, blackened redfish or spicy pork dishes.

Recommend opening an hour prior to drinking to breathe.

2014 Petite Sirah ($30 retail)

Double-Gold – Fingerlakes International Wine Competition, Gold – Denver International Wine Competition

Sweet berry pie with a floral influence that lends richness to the aroma.

Food Pairing Recommendation: Enjoy with barbecued steak, sausage dishes or smoked ham. Accompany lean meats with blue cheese or gorgonzola sauce to integrate the fine tannins.
